AMENDMENT

SIR:

This is in response to the Office Action mailed December 10, 2004. In that Office Action the Examiner entered a requirement that a single species be elected for prosecution. In response to the election requirement, we elect species 6. All of the claims in the current patent application are readable upon species 6 - quantum well layers that are polar.

We gratefully acknowledge the opportunity for the examination of claims to additional species (which are in dependent form or include the limitations of an allowed generic claim) upon the allowance of a generic claim.
